

The Oconto Evergreen Cemetery Potter's Field Research Project

Updated May 11, 2022

Research done by Peter Gabrielson, Oconto Wisconsin

This document is a collection of information about individuals that have been buried at the Evergreen Cemetery in Oconto Wisconsin. Included in it is information about people from the Oconto area that are buried in the Potter's Field. It is by no means a finished study and in fact may never be a finished study. It is a document that will continue to be updated as more information becomes available.

The information was gathered over a period of years from several sources including:

- The Evergreen Cemetery Record Burials book;
- The Oconto County Genealogical Society's Cemetery search web page (http://www.wicemeteries.com/cem_search2.php);
- The Family Search website (<https://www.familysearch.org/search/>);
- The Ancestry Search Library Edition (<https://www.ancestrylibrary.com/>);
- The Oconto County newspaper digitized historical collection (<http://ocnews.co.oconto.wi.us/jsp/RcWebSimpleSearch.jsp>);
- Newspapers.com+ (<https://www.newspapers.com/>); and,
- Others.

I have organized the information in a table format and have included the following information by column:

1. ID #
2. Interment Date (Year, Month);
3. Name;
4. Burial Information: How is the burial listed in the Evergreen Cemetery Record Book? (PF-Potter's Field, CG-Common Ground, PG-Poor Ground, B-Blank (no information listed), 31a- a cemetery section; a key to the entries in column 4 is at the top of each page
5. Age at the time of their passing;
6. Notes & Misc. Information including links to online site articles about the person if I found any.

KEY: PF- potter's field; NPF- north pf; SPF- south pf; PG- poor ground; CG- common ground; BE- buried elsewhere; M- no information in Cemetery records but in media (e.g. newspaper); numbers such as 31a, 48, 53, 20 and L19B31 are all sections in the cemetery (e.g. Sof48 means buried south of section 48)

Final Notes and Comments:

Note 1- I entered the information in the section titled "Research Notes & Misc" as I was doing my research, thus a lot of it is in a note-taking type format and as a result is grammatically "rough". Some names are still recorded with no capital letters and abbreviations are used that might not make sense to everyone. However, I thought that it was time that I made this research available to the public in order that you can have access to so many of the life stories of the individuals I researched, most of whom are buried in our Potter's Fields.

Note 2- For many of these individuals, I was able to locate articles from the Oconto County newspaper digitized historical collection (<http://ocnews.co.oconto.wi.us/jsp/RcWebSimpleSearch.jsp>) that referenced them. Many of these articles were fascinating and they added a lot of "life" to the story of these individuals and their families. In each case, I copied the link to these articles and included it in the "Research Notes & Misc." column of the table. In most cases I noted the page number on which the article can be found to make it easier to find, however I may have missed a couple; so, if you do open a link in which I have not identified the page number, you should still be able to find the specific article by using the search function (orange magnifying glass) at the top of the page. I was also able to locate information in articles from the Newspapers.com Publisher edition. That information should be viewable as a "clipping" if you click on the link that is shown.

Note 3- There is a key at the top of the page some information about whether or not burial information is included in the cemetery records book. KEY: B-blank i.e. no information recorded as to burial location; PF- Potters field; NPF- north Potters field; SPF- South Potters field; PG- poor ground; CG- common ground; BE- buried elsewhere; M- no information in the Cemetery records but information is located in our other media (e.g. newspaper); numbers such as 31a, 48, 53, 20 and L19B31 are all sections in the cemetery (e.g. Sof48 means buried south of section 48)

This has been a labor of love for me and I hope that it provides you with information, inspiration and appreciation for the great individuals and families from all walks of life that have made this community and our country what it is for all of us.

Thanks, Pete Gabrielson
Oconto, Wisconsin

1.	1857	Christopher Beyer	M	40's?	Father of George and Libby Beyer; Christoph (Christopher) and George came to America in 1855; George was left in the employ of a cigar maker in Milwaukee and Christopher went on to Oconto where he found a job in the Jones mill. After he had saved a little money he sent back to Germany for his wife Catherine (Katrina) and daughter Elizabeth (Libby). Catherine and daughter Libby (Elizabeth); arrived in Baltimore in Sep of 1855 and traveled to Milwaukee. In 1857 they joined Christopher in Oconto. Christoph died penniless in 1857 and George had to take on employment to support his mother and sister. His mother Katarina (Catherine) died the very next year in 1858. Both are buried in unknown graves. George (14) and Elizabeth (12) had to fend for themselves. They both grew to be well-known and well-respected members of the community. George became a very successful businessman and very wealthy; he was known as the "Vanderbilt of Oconto" and Libby was a respected school teacher for many years. https://www.google.com/books/edition/Wisconsin/PjbesPyspbYC?hl=en&gbpv=1&dq=%22christopher+beyer%22+oconto&pg=PA429&printsec=frontcover

7.	1868-03	Mary Ann Barrington	B	23	3-7-1868; Ireland, wife of William (An Oconto resident who fought for the Confederacy during the Civil War. See the link below; the story is FASCINATING!; The following information was discovered by Kitty Werner in May, 2021. "I just saw family trees with a daughter born on March 3, 1868 to William and Mary Ann. She must have died in childbirth." Also, "I am proofreading the OCHS newsletter and was interested in the picture of the stone you included. Beckwith and Barrington are two names I have come across in the Civil War records I am trying to reconcile. That led me to look up Mary Ann Barrington and finding a Find-A-Grave memorial for her here (from the OCGS Cemetery Index of sexton records) and one for a grave in Waupaca. The one in Waupaca was linked to her husband's which has a long article about him joining the Confederate army. At the end it says he, William, and his brother, Richard, moved from Oconto to Waupaca. It makes me wonder if the two graves are for the same woman. Take a look and see what you think."
